

STORY TELLERS—Two teenagers from Torrance, Sandy Jo Inghram, 20511 Wayne Ave., and Gerald Langton, 5545 Emerald St., guested on Art Linkletter's CBS-TV show "House Party," on Wednesday, April 19. The show was pre-taped for release at this time. They both took part in a question-answer period with Art Linkletter, when he asked the question, "What is the most memorable event that ever happened to you?" Sandy Jo had a story to tell about a plane trip with her family, and a crash landing they had to make in the middle of the Nevada desert. Jerry had a story about a "fly ball" he caught that won his team the championship. They both received small gifts from Art Linkletter for helping out on "House Party."

Garden Valley Center Representative To Be Guest Speaker for Emblem Club

Gardena Emblem Club is looking forward to their next business meeting, May 4, as a representative from the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded Children will address the members and give a brief talk on this most important project which will have training classes for those children, who have been rejected by other organized programs.

Gardena Emblem Club, on the motion of the club's new welfare chairman who is Mrs. Marvin Knapp, voted to adopt part of the school's need as one of their main philanthropies for the coming year. A new folding bed, mattress and linens have already been supplied by the club and twenty-two cobble aprons are in the process of being made to be worn when the children are painting.

Mrs. Erwin Popp, president, Mrs. Al Luchsinger, Mrs. James Allgood, and Mrs. Richard Keenan, along with Mrs. Marvin Knapp, attended the dedication of the school on April 22 and were deeply impressed with the Association and their aspirations.

The Club also donated $25 to the Exceptional Children's Opportunity School and $15 to the Red Cross. A baby bed was donated to a young mother and groceries and shoes to another needy family. An elderly lady in the General Hospital was supplied 3 pints of blood by members.

Our recent Italian dinner was a big success both financially and socially. Everyone attending reported a good time. Lucille Ketchum, Ways and Means chairman and committee worked hard to make it an enjoyable evening for all.

Emblem ladies attending the California-Nevada State Association of Emblem Clubs convention in Sacramento from April 26 to 29 are Mmes. Erwin Popp, Mae Francia, Al Zehring, Richard Keenan, Marvin Knapp, Vera Kelly, William Cloud and James Allgood. Those competing in the bowling contest will be Mmes: George Haines, Danny Brown, Erwin Popp and Lucille Ketchum. Lucille Ketchum is a chairman for the bowling activities at the convention.

The Clubs next event will be the Annual Birthday Dinner which is always a beautiful event. This year's theme will be "The Lucky Seven."
